

Wine notes

From JetBlue's wine expert, Jon Bonné.

SPARKLING

Roederer Estate Brut, MV, Anderson Valley

Champagne house Louis Roederer arrived in Mendocino County, California, three decades ago, to create one of the New World's best sparkling wines. A glassful of its exceptional citrus and baked pastry flavors are just the thing to toast the new year, all month long.

WHITE

Lioco Chardonnay, Sonoma County

Over the past decade, Lioco has become one of California's most respected Chardonnay producers, known for a style that celebrates pure fruit flavors rather than oak or buttery flavors. This latest release of its benchmark wine, sourced from a handful of top Sonoma vineyards, might be their best yet, full of ripe orange and pear accents.

Hermann J. Wiemer Dry Riesling, Finger Lakes

As New York's Hometown Airline, JetBlue is especially proud to showcase the bounty of the state's wines. Grown from estate vineyards along Seneca Lake, and packed with finessed green-apple and mineral flavors, this bottle shows why Wiemer has become one of America's best Riesling producers.

RED

Calera Pinot Noir, Central Coast

Josh Jensen's work in Burgundy inspired his quest for great Pinot Noir, and today his Calera wines are considered some of California's best. So we're doubly pleased to have his wonderful Central Coast blend, defined by its robust cherry and warm spice, back on board for Mint customers!

Bedrock Old Vine Zinfandel, California

Morgan Twain-Peterson was literally born into Zin: his father founded well-known Ravenswood. Today he makes wine from some of California's most historic vineyards -- including this bottle, which uses his historic circa—1888 Bedrock planting and key selections from across the state for an elegant, spicy, fruit-packed glassful.
