

Wine notes

From JetBlue's wine expert, Jon Bonné.

SPARKLING

Roederer Estate Brut, MV, Anderson Valley

Champagne house Louis Roederer arrived in Mendocino County, California, three decades ago, to create one of the New World's best sparkling wines. A glassful of its exceptional citrus and baked pastry flavors are just the thing to toast the new year, all year long.

WHITE

Calera Chardonnay, 2014, Central Coast

Josh Jensen's Chardonnay is a study in balance and pleasure, ripe and complex. Made from a selection of top California vineyards, from Santa Clara to Santa Barbara, it's redolent of ripe citrus fruit, with an aromatic lift — think lemon verbena and warm winter spices.

Hermann J. Wiemer Dry Riesling, Finger Lakes

As New York's Hometown Airline, JetBlue is especially proud to showcase the bounty of the state's wines. Grown from estate vineyards along Seneca Lake, and packed with finessed green-apple and mineral flavors, this bottle shows why Wiemer has become one of America's best Riesling producers.

RED

Wind Gap Soif Red, 2015, North Coast

"Soif" means "thirst" in French, and Pax Mahle, who crafts some of California's best Syrah, created this refreshing red as a perfect warm-weather wine. It's also a tribute to the great West Coast tradition of field blends: a mix of seven grapes, everything from Syrah to Valgudié and Carignane. The result is fruity, subtle and, yes, thirst-quenching.

Bedrock Old Vine Zinfandel, California

Morgan Twain-Peterson was literally born into Zin: his father founded well-known Ravenswood. Today he makes wine from some of California's most historic vineyards -- including this bottle, which uses his historic circa—1888 Bedrock planting and key selections from across the state for an elegant, spicy, fruit-packed glassful.
