

Wine notes

From JetBlue's wine expert, Jon Bonné.

SPARKLING

SCHRAMSBERG RESERVE BRUT, 2007, North Coast

The Davies family has pioneered some of California's best sparkling wine for nearly 50 years. And the Reserve is their finest expression of the Pinot Noir grape, along with a touch of Chardonnay. It's aged in bottle for more than 7 years, to create an opulent but lively glass full of baked pastry, citrus and warm spice flavors. Here's a wine that outshines many grand-cuvée Champagnes!

WHITE

MATTHIASSEN LINDA VISTA VINEYARD CHARDONNAY, 2016, Napa Valley

Top California talents Steve and Jill Matthiassen are back with their irresistible Chardonnay, grown on a historic property right behind their house in the cooler southern end of Napa. This latest vintage is fruit-forward, with lots of fresh, sunny peach and apple flavors but the complexity to match nearly any dish.

ROSÉ

MACARI ROSÉ, 2015, North Fork of Long Island

Our summer of rosé continues, with this selection from JetBlue's home state of New York. The Macari family captures all the fun of the Hamptons in this refreshing, berry-full bottle, a mix of Merlot and Cabernet Franc. Fully dry and not shy on fruit, it's the perfect wine to enjoy any time of day or night.

RED

BROC CELLARS VALDIGUIÉ, 2016, Green Valley

A selection that represents the best of California wine today. This is Valdiguié, a beloved grape for many years that faded into obscurity until Berkeley's Chris Brockway and his fellow vintners spearheaded a revival. Consider this a bit of history in a glass, as versatile as red wine gets: fragrant with violets and thyme, brimming with hearty plum flavors.

WENZLAU DRAWING BOARD PINOT NOIR, Sta. Rita Hills

The valleys outside Santa Barbara are one of the country's best spots for Pinot Noir, thanks to constant wind and cool, stable temperatures. And the Wenzlau family make some outstanding examples, including this one grown outside the town of Lompoc. It's subtle, aromatic and classic, with lots of generous raspberry fruit and warm spice.
