

Wine notes

From JetBlue's wine expert, Jon Bonné.

SPARKLING

ROEDERER ESTATE BRUT, MV, Anderson Valley

The return of one of our favorite Mint bubbles! The famed Champagne house Louis Roederer arrived in California's Mendocino County in the early 1980s, and since then has been making sparkling wine with all the finesse of its renowned Champagnes. It's decidedly complex, with opulent citrus and baked pastry flavors.

WHITE & ROSÉ

FAILLA CHARDONNAY, 2015, Sonoma Coast

A fantastically rich, fruit-driven example of modern California Chardonnay from talented winemaker Ehren Jordan. Lots of ripe pear and apple fruit is matched by a savory minerality that's a signature of Failla's meticulously chosen cool-climate vineyards.

ROSÉ OF THE MOMINT

Yes, it's January—and the perfect time for rosé, because there's no reason not to drink pink all year round! These wines are a perfect match with most of our Mint menu. Ask your inflight crewmember about today's selection on board.

RED

BROC CELLARS VALDIGUIÉ, 2016, Green Valley

From Berkeley's Chris Brockway comes this subtle, medium-bodied red—made from Valdiguié, a grape now enjoying a resurgence in California for its utter drinkability. It's fragrant with violets and thyme, and full of hearty plum flavors.

RED OF THE MOMINT

Prefer something bolder, like Cabernet, with lots of ripe fruit? We have just the thing for a hearty glassful of red. Ask your inflight crewmember about today's selection on board.
